Another day has been added so that we can visit the St. John Paul II National Shrine on the property of the National Basilica Shrine of the Immaculate Conception. Also, other tours will be conducted to the Arlington, and possibly the Smithsonian Museum or other venues. There will be time to tour all the chapels and gift shop at the National Shrine. All the information is in detail, on the itinerary sheet. The person responsible is Denise Cook, of St. Francis of Assisi in Franklin, NC. Her cell number is 828-421-8589 and she requests “texting only”. I have the registration sheets and itinerary for anyone who wants one. These should be returned to Denise by the first week in November. If you have any questions regarding these forms call me at 926-2339. Other information needs to be addressed by text to Denise Cook. I hope St. Margaret’s will be represented. Jan Kaiser

STEWARDSHIP BULLETIN REFLECTION

Today, we celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints. Most of us are aware that every day of the year is Feast Day for some saints. In fact, and this is of great consequence to our understanding, according to the Catholic Encyclopedia “The Solemnity of All Saints is when the Church honors all saints, known and unknown.”

Those who have Feast Days are “known.” Yet, each of us has known “saints” in our lives who fall into the category of “unknown.” It may have been a parent or a sibling or a friend or a co-worker or a neighbor or a member of our parish or merely someone with whom we came in contact at some point in time. The crux is that on this day we need to pray and to honor those saints who have been an important part of our life in some way.

Indeed this is a day which should remind us that we, too, are called to sainthood. Not that we aspire to be honored publicly by the Pope or by the Church, but we do need to recognize that each of us is called to holiness. It is those “unknown” saints who provide examples of how to live and love and treat others, how to be good stewards. May we pray for them and may we seek to be like them in our own lives!
