Whatever you do...

The window tinting in the church has been completed! Thank you for your patience regarding the work that was on-going last weekend. In answer to the complaint of a few, we did try to have the work started on Monday & continue thru the week so as not to disrupt weekend Mass, however we had to work with the schedule that was available with the contractor. Otherwise, it would have meant waiting several months to get started with any of the bids we received. Some of the contractors did not want to take on the taller sanctuary windows or wanted us to remove the cross. Thankfully, the company we hired did not have this issue. They did a great job & hopefully this will help to keep those of us near the windows cooler and protect against the fading of the upholstery we replaced a couple of years ago.
