HONDURAS MISSION

Bishop Joseph Bonello from the Honduras Mission will be visiting us next weekend to explain his mission and the needs of his mission. Their total economy was based on the banana crop which was wiped out a few years ago by a hurricane. They are beginning to see some progress but still are in dire need. Please be generous.

Missionaries

BE THERE OR BE SQUARE!

Ladies.....The Women's Guild will be holding their meeting this Thursday at the Pathways Homeless Shelter. Jeremy Parton will talk to us about the shelter, it's operations and how they assist their guests in getting back on their feet. We will be taking a tour of the facilities as well. Parking at the Center is very limited so if possible please meet at Murphy Hall at 9:30 Thursday morning and carpool. We will start our meeting at 10:00.

A BLESSED OPPORTUNITY...

Our Faith Formation program is looking for a coordinator. This is a 10 hr. per week paid position working with the youth and families of our parish. If you are an organizer and want to serve the Lord by guiding the next generation of Catholics, this is a wonderful opportunity to fulfill that need. Please call the parish office to find out more.

WELCOME TO OUR PARISH FAMILY

All newcomers interested in officially joining the parish are asked to call the church office to register.

STEWARDSHIP BULLETIN REFLECTION

"Go and do likewise." Can there be a more simple instruction from our Lord and Savior Jesus? With these words, He closes the Parable of the Good Samaritan, which is at the heart of our Gospel reading for today. That parable was inspired by the question, "Who is my neighbor?"

That parable may be the most familiar to people of faith, and even to those who are not Christians, for it represents what is expected of us as followers of Christ, but it also presents an expectation for every human person.

A simplified answer to the question "Who is my neighbor?" might be "Your neighbor is anyone you see or know who is in need." It is much more than the person who lives in your neighborhood, or someone you may know at church or at the office. Equally telling is the response the questioner gave to Jesus when the Lord asked, after sharing the parable, "Which was the neighbor to the robber's victim?" to which the lawyer responded, "The one who treated him with mercy."

Is it any wonder that Pope Francis has declared this a Year of Mercy? What he expects of us is what Jesus expects from us. The Holy Father says, "Let us become agents of Christ's mercy, channels through which God can water the earth, protect all creation, and make justice and peace flourish." That is a call to stewardship.
