Giving of our time, talent and treasure is not about giving until it hurts. Rather, it is about giving until you feel good about what you have given.

NOTE: Please be aware that our bulletin is posted on our website; therefore, any information is out there in cyberspace, accessible to anyone. Please let the office know if this is an issue for you.

Your pledge to the Diocesan Support Appeal is shared with the educational, multicultural, vocational, housing and social service ministries of the diocese. Thousand of people depend on your generosity. You may complete a pledge envelope and return it to the Parish Office or go to: charlottediocese.org/dsa to make a gift online.

PARISH HALL PAVING

The paving of the Parish Hall could possibly begin next week, weather permitting. Since they are calling for rain next week the company will call us on Monday when hopefully we will know more. If and when it happens anything scheduled at the Parish Hall will have to be either re-scheduled or moved up to the rectory. You can call the office Monday afternoon or Tuesday to see if we have further information.

We are grateful to all of you, especially for blessing Lynn Ann with love and comfort. Thanks to the Open Door team and to all who honored Don Loetz with their help and presence. Our church family is the true Body of Christ.

WOMEN'S GUILD

The Women's Guild will hold their meeting on Thursday, June 13th at 10:00 AM at Murphy Garland Hall. Our guest speakers will be Lynn & Tausha Forney, who will give information on the Pigeon Community Center in Waynesville. The Women's Guild donated money to them this past March. We look forward to seeing all the women of the Guild at the meeting.

FAITH FORMATION

Congratulations to our High School graduates! Levi Tox (Tuscola) who will be attending UNC, Chapel Hill, Nicole Borges (Haywood Christian Academy, Valedictorian) who will be attending Western Carolina University, and Sarah Holley (home school) who will be attending Belmont Abbey.

STEWARDSHIP BULLETIN REFLECTION

Today we reach the finale of the Easter season with the celebration of the great Feast of Pentecost. Reflecting on today's readings inspires a sense of awe as we consider the mighty power of the Holy Spirit at work giving birth to and sustaining our Church. Just as awesome — the same Spirit is calling to us this day to take up our part in the Church's saving work.

In the first reading, from Acts, we see the creative genius of the Holy Spirit moving through the newly confirmed Apostles "who began to speak in different tongues as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim." The large crowd, gathered from all over the world were "amazed" and "astounded" that each one could understand the Apostles speaking in their own language.

Each one of us, young and old alike, is personally called today by the Holy Spirit into the same mission as that of the first Apostles — to advance the Kingdom of God in our corner of the world. Just as He did on that Pentecost day, the Holy Spirit speaks to us in our "own language" to give us the Good News of the Gospel and urge us to share it. We can think of our own language as the particular gifts, talents and passions we possess. We experience the presence of the Holy Spirit through them and we are meant put them to the work in grateful service of the Kingdom of God.

When we consider the stewardship way of life we are called to live, we often focus on the challenges it poses. Surrendering ourselves to God is indeed a challenging way to live. But it leads to a life that is exciting, creative and deeply rewarding. Stewardship allows us to experience life as a great adventure because it is a life guided and directed by the very source of power and creativity— the Holy Spirit!
