STEWARDSHIP BULLETIN REFLECTION

Our readings today show us that living a stewardship way of life — a life focused on serving God and His Kingdom — is not easy. They also show us that our lives belong to God, not to us, and that God will indeed bring about the fulfillment of His kingdom. We just need to have faith that He can do it and commit to our small part in His grand design. This is both our privilege and responsibility as Christian stewards

Jesus makes this privilege and responsibility clear in today's Gospel passage from Luke. When the apostles ask the Lord to increase their faith, He tells them that even a mustard seed-sized faith is all that is needed to move mountains (because it is God who does the heavy lifting). We need only take the tiniest step forward, and He will do the rest.

But living our lives in His service is also very much our responsibility, as Jesus explains through the parable of the unprofitable servant later in this passage. Our Lord describes a scene in which a servant has just come in from tending to the master's affairs and asks whether it would be reasonable for the master to begin waiting on his servant. Of course, it would not be reasonable! The servant would be expected to continue to serve his master until he has completed the work the master has given him that day. Jesus says we should have this same attitude before God.

The time, talents, and treasure entrusted to us are all God's. Our very lives belong to Him. Whatever we do on God's behalf with our lives and our gifts is simply our God-given responsibility.

The stewardship way of life makes the privilege and responsibility of serving Christ and His kingdom a reality. Copyright20www.thecatholicsteward.com

HOMEMADE BAKED GOODS NEEDED

On Saturday, October 12, from 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM. The Catholic Women of St. Margaret of Scotland will be selling homemade baked goods at the Church Street Arts & Crafts Festival in downtown Waynesville.

Guild members will be calling asking for your donation to this year's bake sale.

Some suggestions

Pies – all kind are popular

Breads – homemade breads are great for freezing

Cakes—When donating, please remember that while popular, cream pies and cheese cakes will not hold up to the heat of the day.

Candy – homemade peanut brittle is a real favorite

Any of the above that are sugar free

ALSO: Homemade Jams, Jellies, Pickles, Relishes, Salsa, Trail Mix
Please list ingredients in your donation as many people today have food allergies, especially to peanuts.

PLEASE DO NOT CUT DONATIONS OF CAKES, BROWNIES OR PIES

This will enable us to keep our sale items uniform in size.

The bake sale committee will prepare and price all items for the sale.

PLEASE DELIVER YOUR DONATIONS TO MURPHY/GARLAND HALL ON FRIDAY, OCTOBER 11TH FROM 9:00 AM – 1:00 PM.
