FROM THE PASTOR

Today we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord. How fitting it is to complete the Christmas Season with the Feast that makes the Christmas Season alive for us for the rest of the year in our lives. What would the life of Christ mean, if it were only a story that we heard in a book? What if His life had nothing to do with our own?

Baptism, my brothers and sisters, is the most graced moment of our lives. For all the Baptized share the mission of Jesus everyday of their lives. In turn we will all share in his Eternal life.

The sinless one, Jesus, stepped down into the waters of the Jordan, and with his divine and human body, Jesus blessed the waters of the earth.

After years of waiting and preparation, the time has come for Jesus to take up his mission. No longer would he be hidden away in Nazareth, quietly plying his trade as a carpenter, quietly praying in the synagogue with his family and friends.

Here at the river Jordan is the time to play his part in His Father's plan, the time to announce and to bring about the Kingdom of God. Here at the river Jordan is the time for the beginning of his public ministry, the healings, exorcisms, preaching and teaching.

In our baptism, we share with Jesus in His mission. To reach out to those in need is our vocation in Christ. To place oneself in physical danger is not called for, but we are called to work with others to bring about true justice in our homes, our community, and in our society, which is the only way we will experience true peace. Terrorism is evil, murder and suicide are evil. They are works of Satan. But so is injustice, in whatever form it rears its ugly head. The American Bishops have taught us, if we want peace, work for Justice.
