APRIL 26, 2015

If we give ourselves to God and let Him use our talents to serve others, we will be amazed by the results. Not only will our lives be changed but so will the lives of others.

NOTE: Please be aware that our bulletin is posted on our website; therefore, any information in the bulletin is out there in cyberspace, accessible to anyone. Please let the office know if this is an issue for you.

Our Mission Statement : To Fulfill Fr. Michael Murphy's dream to be a welcoming community

Thank you so much for all of your help in supporting the DSA. Thousands of people will be helped as a result of your generosity.

Marian Garden

We will be planting a Marian Garden by Fr. Murphy's Blessed Mother statue on the side of the rectory. Anyone interested in helping please contact the office for details and we can set a date. If you cannot physically help but would like to donate towards plants, bench or a few pavers we will need it would be most appreciated. Also, does anyone have a tiller we can borrow?

Quo Vadis Days Camp

Attention all Catholic young men ages 15-25! Do you know where your life is going? The Lord Jesus has a great plan for you! You are invited to attend the third annual Quo Vadis Days camp to spend time with other young men your age looking at the Lord's call in your life while having fun. QVD is led by priests and seminarians of the diocese and is supported by the diocesan Office of Vocations. Quo Vadis Days will be held from June 15-19, 2015 at Belmont Abbey College in Belmont. The cost of the camp is $100.00. If you are interested, please visit our website: www.charlottediocese.org/vocations/quo-vadis-days or contact Fr. Christopher Gober, Director of Vocations at (704)370-3327.

STEWARDSHIP BULLETIN REFLECTION

Traditionally, the Fourth Sunday of Easter (today) is also called Good Shepherd Sunday. Christ tells us in today's Gospel from John, "I am the good shepherd, and I know mine and mine know me." The image of Christ as the shepherd is one of the oldest in the Church. Even in the Catacombs there is an ancient drawing of Christ carrying a sheep on his shoulders.

Sometimes it is difficult for us to view ourselves as sheep. There is something passive and reliant in that image which may bother our sense of independence. However, if we are honest with ourselves, we know that we need the Lord's help and guidance. An essential part of living a stewardship way of life is placing our lives in the hands of our Good Shepherd nonetheless.

Throughout this Easter Season we celebrate that one mystery — that Christ gave His life for us on the Cross. If we accept the fact that He is our Savior and that He is our Shepherd, we are better able to serve as shepherds to one another. Stewardship is a life of giving self, a life of self-giving. We must constantly work to live up to the Lord's expectations of us, but we also must always know that He is our shepherd, our Good Shepherd, and He is always there for us.
